

I am against changing any rules or laws that will allow corporate takeover of my media sources. I am asking that there be more disclosure to the public about the impact that the proposed changes could have, i.e. one or two major sources of information in a geographical area could restrict the news we receive.